Dear Parents/Carers,

Welcome back to the second half term of this year.

The students have returned extremely well and are very focused in lessons which is excellent.

With the publication of updated data we are delighted that All Saints has been recognised as in the top 12% of schools in the country for pupil progress. A great testimony to all in our community, students, staff and parents.

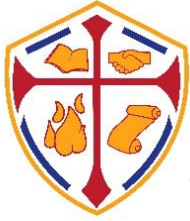

As ever we have a busy half-term ahead so I have included some key dates for your diary.

In the last half-term we raised £700 for Macmillan Cancer Care with our cake sale and over £1,000 to support an orphanage in the Congo run the by the order 'Oblates of the Assumption'. It is fantastic that the pupils are so proactive in looking beyond the school to help others in need.

As ever thank you for your on-going support for all we do at All Saints.

With every good wish,

Clare Cantle
